Let's Talk About Your Goals

① Still Got College?

If you still have College expenses to pay, start with the College Goal.

- Enter as many College Goals as you need for kids, grandkids, even yourself.
- Enter multiple College Goals for one person (e.g., Undergraduate and Graduate).

On To Retirement . . .

② Retirement Lifestyle Goals - Begin with the fun stuff!

Add a Lifestyle Goal for each significant purchase or activity that will make your Retirement satisfying and enjoyable. Lifestyle Goals are above and beyond what you need to pay the basic expenses of day-to-day living. Those will be covered by your Retirement Living Expense Goal in the next section.

- Go through the 14 Lifestyle Goal pictures. Which ones are important to your Retirement satisfaction?
- Dream a little (or a lot). Create all the Goals you'd like, even if you're not sure you can afford them.
- Be sure to consider Cars, Travel and Gifts, which are usually important Goals during Retirement.

You can never have too many Goals. Creating more individual Lifestyle Goals and rating them by importance can help you make better financial decisions, and increase the overall satisfaction you obtain from your money during the rest of your life. You may even discover that you can do more with your money than you ever expected.

Creating Your Acceptable Range

For each Goal, enter two spending amounts, Ideal and Acceptable. This creates your Acceptable Range. (Note that you can make the Ideal & Acceptable amounts the same, so there is no range.)

Then, ask yourself this question: "If I could be confident that the amount of money I'd have to fund each Goal would be within the Acceptable Range, would I be satisfied?" Be sure you can answer yes.

Retirement Basic Living Expense Goal

Now that you've identified your Retirement Lifestyle Goals, it's time to create a Goal for your Basic Living Expense during retirement.

Basic Living Expense

Everyone must pay the bills. This Goal is for your basic day-to-day living expenses (e.g., food, clothes, utilities, etc.) during retirement. By making your Basic Living Expense a separate Goal, you can see exactly what it takes to "pay-the-bills" for the rest of your life. When you're confident that you've got your basic expenses covered, you can sleep better at night and feel free to enjoy spending money to fulfill your other Retirement Lifestyle Goals.

Importance High Low 10 ↔ 1	Description	Amount
		Ideal	Acceptable
10	Basic Living Expenses	$_____ per year	$_____ per year

Be sure you don't "double count" any expenses during retirement. For example, if you entered a separate Goal for a car, don't include the purchase cost of this car in your Living Expense, but do include all operating expenses (e.g., gas, taxes, maintenance). If you're not sure how much money you need, use the Budget Worksheet on pages 13 - 14.
