James E. Pearman Named “Super CPA” by Virginia Business Magazine

ROANOKE, Va. (Nov. 2, 2011) – Partners in Financial Planning, LLC is pleased to announce that James E. Pearman, CPA/PFS, CFP®, has been recognized as a 2011 Virginia “Super CPA” in the personal financial planning category by Virginia Business magazine.

Pearman is a 1970 honors graduate in accounting from Virginia Tech. He received his Certified Public Accountant (CPA) designation in 1972. His experience includes four years with Peat, Marwick, Mitchell CPAs (now KPMG Peat Marwick) and sixteen years as a banking executive with both large and small banking organizations. Pearman has been providing personal financial planning services since 1990.

For the 11th consecutive year, Virginia Business magazine has joined forces with the 10,000-member Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants (VSCPA) to honor the top CPAs in Virginia with the “Super CPA” awards. This public awareness program recognizes extraordinary CPAs for their important contributions to the profession and the Commonwealth.

The “Super CPA” winners, selected in 12 categories, are nominated by their VSCPA peers and are profiled in the November issue of Virginia Business.

Partners in Financial Planning, LLC is a fee-only financial planning firm located at 421 S.
